PART XIII
AMENDMENT OF THE VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING ACT, 1994

55. This Part shall be read as one with the Vocational Education and Training Act, 1994 herein referred to as the “principal Act.”

56. The principal Act is amended in subsection (1) of section 16:

(a) by deleting the figures 101, 103, 107, 108 and 109 and substituting for them the figures 100, 110, 112, 113 and 114 respectively.

(b) by deleting the year “1973” appearing at the end of subsection (1) and substituting for it the year “2004”.
PART XIV
AMENDMENT OF THE TAX REVENUE APPEALS ACT, 2000

57. This Part shall be read as one with the Tax Revenue Appeals Act, 2000 hereinafter referred to as the "principal Act".

58. The principal Act is amended by—

(a) deleting sub-title PART III and substituting for it the following:

"PART III
OBJECTION TO TAX ASSESSMENT"

(b) repealing sections 12 and 13 and substituting for them the following:

12.—(1) Any person who disputes an assessment made upon him may, by notice in writing to the Commissioner General, object to the assessment.

(2) A notice of objection shall contain a statement in precise form, of the grounds in respect of which the objection to an assessment is made, and shall be filed with the Commissioner General within thirty days from the date of service of the notice of the assessment.

(3) Where a notice of objection to an assessment is given, the person objecting shall, pending the final determination of the objection to an assessment by the Commissioner General in accordance with section 13 pay the amount of tax which is not in dispute or one third of the assessed tax, whichever amount is greater.

(4) The Commissioner General may, upon being satisfied that there exist good reasons warranting reduction or waiver of tax payable in accordance with the requirement of subsection (3), direct that a lesser amount be paid or waive the required tax deposit.

(5) On receipt of the notice of objection, the Commissioner General shall—

(a) admit the notice of objection to assessment of tax; or
(b) refuses to admit the notice of objection to assessment of tax;

(6) The Commissioner General shall not refuse to admit the notice of objection to assessment of tax unless —
(a) the notice does not comply with the requirements of subsections (1), (2) or (3);
(b) the notice does not raise any question of law or fact in relation to the assessment;
(c) the relief sought cannot be granted in law or equity;
(d) the objection is time barred; or
(e) the objection is otherwise misconceived.

(7) Any person who is aggrieved with the refusal by the Commissioner General to admit the notice of objection may, on depositing with the Commissioner General the amount of tax assessed which is not in dispute or one third of the amount of tax assessed, whichever is greater, together with the interest due as a result of late payment of the tax in respect of which the notice of objection is issued, appeal to the Board against the refusal and the decision of the Board on whether or not the notice of objection be admitted by the Commissioner General shall be final.

(8) Where a notice of objection has been given under subsection (1), then irrespective of whether the assessment has been finally determined or not —
(a) the tax not in dispute shall be payable at the time of filing the notice of objection and if the due date occurred earlier than the period of thirty days referred to under subsection (2), the tax not in dispute shall be payable on that due date;
(b) the amount of tax as finally determined shall, if be lesser than the amount deposited with the Commissioner General, be repaid to the objector.

(9) For avoidance of doubt —
(a) the tax not in dispute shall be the amount which would be charged if the assessment was amended in accordance with the notice of objections;
(b) the whole of the tax or duty assessed on imports shall be deemed to be not in dispute.
13.—(1) The Commissioner General shall, upon admission of an objection in accordance with section 12, determine the objection as filed, or call for any evidence as may appear to be necessary for the determination of the objection, and may, in that respect—

(a) amend the assessment in accordance with the objection;

(b) amend the assessment in the light of any further evidence that has been received; or

(c) refuse to amend the assessment.

(2) Where the Commissioner General agrees to amend the assessment in accordance with the objection, he shall serve a notice of the final assessment to the objector.

(3) Where the Commissioner General—

(a) proposes to amend the assessment in accordance with the objection and any further evidence; or

(b) proposes to refuse to amend the objection,

he shall serve the objector with a notice setting out the reasons for the proposal.

(4) Upon receipt of the notice pursuant to subsection (3), the objector shall, within thirty days make submission in writing to the Commissioner General on his agreement or disagreement with the proposed amended assessment or the proposed refusal.

(5) The Commissioner General may, after the receipt of the submissions by the objector made pursuant to subsection (4)—

(a) determine the objection in the light of the proposed amended assessment or proposed refusal and any submission made by the objector; or

(b) determine the objection partially in accordance with the submission by the objector; or

(c) determine the objection in accordance with the proposed amendment or proposed refusal.

(6) Where the objector has not responded to the Commissioner General’s proposal to amend the assessment or proposal to refuse to amend the assessment served in accordance with subsection (3), the Commissioner General shall proceed to make the final assessment of tax and accordingly serve the objector with a notice thereof.
59. The principal Act is amended in section 15 by repealing subsection (1) and substituting for it the following:

"15. — (1) Where in relation to any assessment —

(a) no notice of objection has been given; or
(b) a notice of objection has been given and—

(i) the assessment has been amended under subsection (1) of section 13; or
(ii) a notice of objection has been given and the assessment has been amended under section 13 in such a way that no appeal will be available against the amendment;
(iii) an appeal has not been preferred against any determination of an objection by the Commissioner General;
(iv) the objection has been finally determined on assessment of tax on an appeal, the assessment as made, or as amended, or as determined on appeal, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive."

60. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 16 and substituting for it the following:

"16. — (1) Any person who is aggrieved by the final determination of the assessment of tax by Commissioner General may appeal to the Board.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), an appeal shall not lie in respect of—

(a) a determination made by the Commissioner General in accordance with section 13(1)(a); or
(b) a determination made by the Commissioner General in accordance with section 13(5)(a);
(c) a determination made by the Commissioner General in accordance with section 13(5)(b) to the extent that the determination is made in accordance with the submission by the objector.

(3) The Board shall not entertain an appeal pursuant to this section unless—

(a) a notice of appeal is served upon the Commissioner General within thirty days following the date on which a notice of final determination of assessment of tax is served on the appellant; and
(b) the appeal is lodged with the Board within forty-five days following the date on which the notice of final determination of assessment of tax is served on the appellant.

(4) A party who is aggrieved by the decision of the Board may appeal against that decision to the Tribunal within thirty days from the date of the decision, and shall serve notice to the opposite party within fifteen days following the date on which the notice of appeal was filed to the Tribunal.

(5) The Board or Tribunal, may extend the limit of time set under subsection (3) or subsection (4) of the section if it is satisfied that the failure by a party to give notice of appeal, lodge an appeal or to effect service to the opposite party was occasioned by absence from the United Republic, sickness or other reasonable cause, subject to such terms and conditions as to costs as it may consider just and appropriate.

(6) Where an objector prefers an appeal to the Board or to the Tribunal, any tax deposited pursuant to section 12(3) shall continue to remain deposited with Commissioner General pending the final determination of the appeal by the Board or, as the case may be, the Tribunal.

PART XV
