18. Payment

- 17.2 This warranty shall remain valid for a period specified in the SCC after the Goods, or any portion thereof as the case may be, have been delivered to and accepted at the final destination indicated in the Contract, or for a period specified in the SCC after the date of shipment from the port or place of loading in the source country, whichever period concludes earlier, unless specified otherwise in SCC.
- 17.3 The Purchaser shall promptly notify the Supplier in writing of any claims arising under this warranty.
- 17.4 Upon receipt of such notice, the Supplier shall, within the period specified in SCC and with all reasonable speed, repair or replace the defective Goods or parts thereof, without costs to the Purchaser other than, where applicable, the cost of inland delivery of the repaired or replaced Goods or parts from EXW or the port or place of entry to entry to the final destination.
- 17.5 If the Supplier, having been notified, fails to remedy the defect(s) within the period specified in SCC, the Purchaser may proceed to take such remedial action as may be necessary, at the Supplier's risk and expense and without prejudice to any other rights which the Purchaser may have against the Supplier under the Contract.
- 18.1 The method and conditions of payment to be made to the Supplier under this Contract shall be specified in SCC.
- 18.2 The Supplier's request(s) for payment shall be made to the Purchaser in writing, accompanied by an invoice describing, as appropriate, the Goods delivered and Services performed, and by documents submitted pursuant to GCC Clause 12, and upon fulfillment of other obligations stipulated in the Contract.
- 18.3 Payments shall be made promptly by the Purchaser, within sixty (60) days after submission of an invoice or claim by the Supplier. If the Purchaser makes a late payment, the Supplier shall be paid interest on the late payment. Interest shall be calculated from the date by which the payment should have been made up to the date when the late payment is made at the rate as specified in the SCC.

18.4 The currency or currencies in which payment is made to the Supplier under this Contract shall be specified in SCC subject to the following general principle: payment will be made in the currency or currencies in which the payment has been requested in the Supplier's Bid.

18.5 All payments shall be made in the currency or currencies specified in the SCC pursuant to GCC Clause 18.4

19.1 The contract price shall be as specified in the Contract Agreement Subject to any additions and adjustments thereto or deductions there from, as may be made pursuant to the Contract.

19.2 Prices charged by the Supplier for Goods delivered and Services performed under the Contract shall not vary from the prices quoted by the Supplier in its Bid, with the exception of any price adjustments authorized in SCC or in the Purchaser's request for Bid validity extension, as the case may be.

20.1 The Purchaser may at any time, by a written order given to the Supplier pursuant to GCC Clause 21, make changes within the general scope of the Contract in any one or more of the following:

- a) Drawings, designs, or specifications, where Goods to be furnished under the Contract are to be specifically manufactured for the Purchaser;
- b) The method of shipment or packing;
- c) The place of delivery; and/or
- d) The Services to be provided by the Supplier.

20.2 If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for, the Supplier's performance of any provisions under the Contract an equitable adjustment shall be made in the Contract Price or delivery schedule, or both, and the Contract shall accordingly be amended. Any claims by the Supplier for adjustment under this clause must be asserted within thirty (30) days from the date of the Supplier's receipt of the Purchaser's change order.

20.3 Prices to be charged by the supplier for any related services that might be needed but which were not included in the Contract shall be agreed upon in advance by the Parties and shall not exceed the prevailing rates charged to other parties by the Supplier for similar services.

24.3 Except as provided under GCC Clause 27, a delay by the Supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the Supplier liable to the imposition of liquidated damages pursuant to GCC Clause 25, unless an extension of time is agreed upon pursuant to GCC Clause 24.2 without the application of liquidated damages.

24.2 If at any time during performance of the Contract, the Supplier should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the Goods the Supplier shall promptly notify the Purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause (s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the Supplier's notice, the Purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may at its discretion extend the Supplier's time for performance, with or without liquidated damages, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of Contract.

23.2 Subcontracts must comply with the provision of GCC Clause 5.

23.1 The Supplier shall notify the Purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contract if not already specified in the Bid. Such notification, in the original Bid or later, shall not relieve the Supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract.

22.1 Neither the Purchaser nor the Supplier shall assign, in whole or in part, obligations under this Contract, except with the prior written consent of the other party.

21.1 Subject to GCC Clause 20, no variation in or modification of the terms of the Contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by the parties.

- a) the Supplier fails to deliver any or all of the Goods within the period(s) specified in the Contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the Purchaser pursuant to GCC Clause 24; or
- b) the Supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the Contract;
- c) the supplier has abandoned or repudiated the contract.
- d) The Purchaser or the Supplier is made bankrupt or goes into liquidation other than for a reconstruction or amalgamation;
- e) a payment is not paid by the Purchaser to the Supplier within 84 days of the due date for payment;
- f) the Purchaser gives Notice that goods delivered with a defect is a fundamental breach of Contract and the Supplier fails to correct it within a reasonable period of time determined by the Purchaser; and

26.2 Fundamental breaches of Contract shall include, but shall not be limited to the following:

26.1 The Purchaser or the Supplier, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of Contract, by written notice of default sent to the concerned party may terminate the Contract if the other party causes a fundamental breach of the Contract.

25.1 Subject to GCC Clause 27, if the Supplier fails to deliver any or all of the Goods or to perform the Services within the period(s) specified in the Contract, the Purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the Contract, deduct from the Contract Price, as liquidated damages, a sum equivalent to the percentage specified in SCC of the delivered price of the delayed Goods or unperformed Services for each week or part thereof of delay until actual delivery or performance, up to a maximum deduction of the percentage specified in SCC. Once the maximum is reached, the Purchaser may consider termination of the Contract pursuant to GCC Clause 26.

26.1 Termination for Default

25.1 Liquidated Damages

(g) the supplier, in the judgment of the Purchaser, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in exacting the Contract.

For the purpose of this clause:

"corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution and includes, inter alia, bribery and extortion or coercion which involves threats of injury to person, property or reputation, and

"fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Purchaser, and includes collusive practices among Bidders (prior to or after Bid submission)

26.4 In the event the Purchaser terminates the Contract in whole or in part, pursuant to GCC Clause 26.1, the Purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, Goods or Services similar to those undelivered, and the Supplier shall be liable to the Purchaser for any excess costs for such similar Goods or Services. However, the Supplier shall continue performance of the Contract to the extent not terminated.

27.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC Clauses 24, 25, and 26, the Supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the Contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the Purchaser in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine, restrictions, acts of terrorists and freight embargoes.

27. Force Majeure

30.1 Disputes If any dispute or difference of any kind whatsoever shall arise between the Purchaser and the Supplier in connection with or arising out of the Contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve amicably such dispute or difference by mutual consultation.

a) To have any portion completed and delivered at the Contract terms and prices; and / or
 b) To cancel the remainder and pay to the Supplier an agreed amount for partially completed Goods and Services and for materials and parts previously procured by the Supplier.

29.2 The Goods that are complete and ready for shipment within thirty (30) days after the Supplier's receipt of notice of termination shall be accepted by the Purchaser at the Contract terms and price. For the remaining Goods, the Purchaser may elect:

29.1 Termination for Convenience The Purchaser, by written notice sent to the Supplier, may terminate the contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that termination is for the Purchaser's convenience, the Contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective.

28.1 Termination for Insolvency The Purchaser may at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Supplier if the Supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the Supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the Purchaser.

27.2 If a Force Majeure situation arises, the Supplier shall promptly notify the Purchaser in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the Purchaser in writing, the Supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

Should the Adjudicator resign or die, or should the Purchaser and the Supplier agree that the Adjudicator is not functioning in accordance with the provisions of the Contract a new Adjudicator will be jointly appointed by the Purchaser and the Supplier. In case of disagreement between the Purchaser and the Supplier, within 30 days, the Adjudicator shall be designated by the Appointing Authority designated in the SCC at the request of either party, within 14 days of receipt of such request.

The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the arbitration procedure published by the institution named and in the place shown in the SCC.

The Adjudicator shall be paid by the hour at the rate specified in the SCC, together with reimbursable expenses of the types specified in the SCC, and the cost shall be divided equally between the Purchaser and the Supplier, whatever decision is reached by the Adjudicator. Either party may refer a decision of the Adjudicator to an Arbitrator within 28 days of the Adjudicator's written decision. If neither party refers the dispute to arbitration within the above 28 days, the Adjudicator's decision will be final and binding.

The Adjudicator shall state in the SCC give a decision in writing within 28 days of receipt of a notification of a dispute.

If the either party believes that a decision taken by the other was wrongly taken, the decision shall be referred to the Adjudicator within 14 days of the notification of the decision.

If after thirty days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the Purchaser or the Supplier may give notice for adjudication.

33. Limitation of Liability
33.1 Except in cases of criminal negligence or willful conduct, and in the case of infringement pursuant to GCC Clause 8,

a) The supplier shall not be liable to the Purchaser, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the Supplier to pay liquidated damages to the Purchaser; and
b) The aggregate liability of the Supplier to the Purchaser, whether under the Contract, in tort or otherwise, shall not exceed the total Contract Price, provided that this limitation shall not apply to the cost of repairing or replacing defective equipment or to any obligation of the Supplier to indemnify the Purchaser with respect to patent infringement.

34. Notices

34.1 Any notice given by one party to the other pursuant to this contract shall be sent to the other party in writing or by cable, telex, or facsimile and confirmed in writing to the other party's address specified in SCC. The term "in writing" means communicated in written form with proof of receipt.
34.2 A notice shall be effective when delivered or on the notice's effective date, whichever is later.

35. Taxes and Duties

35.1 A foreign Supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties, license fees, and other such levies imposed outside the United Republic of Tanzania.
35.2 If any tax exemptions, reductions, allowances or privileges may be available to the Supplier in the United Republic of Tanzania the Purchaser shall use its best efforts to enable the Supplier to benefit from any such tax savings to the maximum allowable extent.
35.3 A local Supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, etc., incurred until delivery of the contracted Goods to the Purchaser.

Board and Management Team of the Prime Minister's Office Labour, Youth, Employment and Persons with Disability for their hard work.

We look forward to be signing the Contract and commence execution of our contractual obligations.

We remain at your disposal and extend our full cooperation as you proceed to complete your internal processes for preparing the DRAFT Contract.

Yours Sincerely,

John Sondi.
